Pro Bono Publico!

IF YOU LOVE YOUR COUNTRY, encourage Home Productions. Why will you send abroad for wretchedly spurious articles, when you can have the good and true and beautiful of Oregon material and Oregon workmanship close at your very doors!
Why impoverish your country and its mechanics by the calculations of Prejudice, or by parsimonious misdirection?

HORATIO COOKE & CO.,
Corner of Alder and Second sts., Portland,
Have now on hand and are steadily constantly increasing a Large Stock of Household Furniture
of Oregon Material and Oregon Workmanship.
The following articles will be found to be part of their stock:

CHESS TABLES,
ROCKING CHAIRS,
ARM CHAIRS, CRADLES
CRIBS, SAFES,
SASH AND DOORS.
Other articles, too numerous to mention, either on hand or made to order.
The superscribers would modestly infer to the most gracious public of the State of Oregon that they would gladly exchange any or all of the above articles for "READY MONEY," or any other article of commerce that will by the conveyance give pleasurable sensations to the high contracting parties.

The life-spring of trade, "READY CASH,"
No matter in which way we view it,
Bubbles us onward to dash,
And therefore we mean to stick to it.

Billiard and Ten Pin Balls turned to the most exact spherical conformation.
Various kinds of turning executed with the beauty of true taste, and to the truth of true order.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 7, 1863

Federal Interference.

The recent disclosures in the California Legislature, finally resulting in the defeat of Mr. Phelps, whose prospects of election to the Senate, in the outset, were clearly better than those of any other candidate—utter a warning worthy of being heeded in other States It has become too much the fashion for Federal office holders to suppose that they are political dictators, and to assume the management of administration interests. Under this impression, they tried to make a Senator in California, and swarmed around the Legislature, offering bargains and making trades which involved every State and national office Their persistent and dictatorial arrogance disgusted the majority, and when it was proved that one of them had been caught in the attempt to bribe, their favorite—though a good man and not implicated in the shameful arrangement—was defeated, and the administration party received a staggering blow, the effects of which will we fear be mischievous at the next election. If so, the administration will have only its officious and official friends to thank. If they had faithfully attended to their own business at home, we have no doubt that Phelps would have been elected, and the harmony of the Union party would have been so preserved, as to have secured its continued success in the State. But where those who hold Federal positions presume to dictate to the popular will, they are very likely to arouse opposition, especially if it is apparent, that in so doing they are working for the continuance of their own places Last Fall our own Legislature would have thanked several of these gentlemen if they had kept seated in their office chairs, and had allowed its members to do the work entrusted to them by the people. It is not always the case that the best or wisest men are placed in such offices,—sometimes the occupants get them as a reward for personal services, without regard to fitness, sometimes as the result of a bargain by which, if A goes to Congress, B and the rest of the alphabet, who contrived his nomination and second his election, are quartered upon the Government, and sometimes through family influence; but however acquired, offices never confer any right or privilege to more than individual influence; if more is claimed and exercised, harm is done and political mischief is sure to follow This course of action we always condemned, when the Democratic party was in power, and for the same reasons, we protest against it while the administration is Republican. Besides being wrong in principle, it is ruinous in policy, and will destroy any party that adopts it.

When the people see that those who live on the Government, undertake by managing primary meetings and conventions, and by bargains therein to control popular action, they will be restless and dissatisfied, and speedily adopt plans to dislodge and repudiate their would-be-masters, and especially will this be the case with those whose stations are the reward for services without merit and whose positions only make their weakness and their selfishness more apparent

We repeat there is a lesson in the California matter, which office holders everywhere will do well to heed

State Agricultural College —Congress donated 90,000 acres of land to this State for the endowment of an Agricultural College, upon condition, however, that the State should express its acceptance of the tract within two years from July 2d, 1862, and should also establish at least one college within five years, "where the leading object should be to teach such branches of learning as are related to agricultural and the mechanic arts" But no portion of said fund, nor the interest thereon, shall be applied, directly or indirectly, under any pretence whatever, to the purchase, erection, preservation or repair of any building or buildings.

The State Legislature, at its last session, expressed its acceptance of the conditions prescribed in the act, and also appointed commissioners for locating the college, who are required to meet at Corvallis, within six months from October 17th, for the purpose of examining all propositions which may be submitted to them in reference to the college, and thereupon they are to proceed to locate the same, at such point as in their judgment may furnish the best facilities The time, within which these commissioners can act, will expire on the 18th April, and it therefore becomes necessary that parties desiring to make propositions should, without delay make arrangements to bring before the commissioners the merits of their respective localities There are many schools in the Valley with partial endowments, the situation of which is favorable for the proposed college, and if any of them have friends, anxious for their prosperity, now is the time for effort upon a scale sufficient to secure the purchase or erection of the necessary buildings in accordance with the act of Congress We hope the people of Oregon will feel sufficient interest in this matter to save the donation from being lost by neglect.

Letter from Auburn

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

Auburn February 20th, 1863

Winter is not very tenacious in its grasp upon us but Spring comes along slowly The snow falls every day more or less, and melts but very little The sun's rays come less and less aslant, and the lengthening days promise us a melting before long that will set the sluices to work and make good times Winter has been a long, dull season, and appears to be a satisfaction to none but the dancing part of the community, who seem to dance it away in a great state of enjoyment.

As Spring approaches, the note of preparation is sounded through the gulches miners are preparing for the working season old ditches are being cleared of snow and ice, tail races and bed rock flumes are being constructed, and the saw mills, of which there are four within three miles of Auburn, are supplied with orders for lumber necessary for mining purposes

The exodus towards Boise continues unabated, and the road thither is said to be passable, and some of the valleys on the way already show springing grass and clover, and afford good feed for animals There is no important news from there Mining is carried on to a very limited extent, on account of everything being frozen up There is naturally a more permanent supply of water there than is found in the Blue mountains Situated at the base of the Salmon river mountains, one of the highest and most rugged ranges on the continent, the springs are more numerous and lasting than in the mountains we inhabit The Blue mountains are really little more than rugged hills in comparison with the Cascade and Salmon river ranges and afford a less amount of water in the streams from having less altitude than they

We have been for two weeks without news from the outer world, and were last evening made glad by the arrival of the express, and also of the mail, bringing us much later dates but no important news.

The mining prospects of this vicinity are certainly good, and there will be a large yield from the different mining localities in Baker county

Business is already accumulating to a large amount to come before the Circuit Court in June, and there is a prospect of a large docket at its first term Most of the legal gentlemen here are from the North western States, with one from Washington Territory, and lately the arrival of Mr J W Slater from Corvallis, late editor of the Union, I believe, gives us a representation from the Oregon bar The prospect is that there will be plenty of litigation here for some time People who deal together are almost strangers, and soon become suspicious, a little difficulty grows into a suit, and the first thing heard of is a writ of attachment, injunction, or of replevin, and the insecurity of property and the transient nature of population, create a very different character of legal business in the courts here from that found in the Willamette counties, and the sheriff's bills count up promptly. There are scarcely any criminal cases as yet The county jail received its first tenant the other day, and lost it again this afternoon, in the person of a young man that was accused of killing a horse His hay stack in Powder river valley was on the open prairie, and not surrounded by any fence, and the horse no doubt found it very comfortable to be in its vicinity, when the snow lay around about three feet deep on a level So the horse got killed, and the hay stack man was put in limbo, and got out again on a writ of habeas corpus, and a reduction of bail amount I am inclined to think the county officials were as glad to be rid of him as he of them

We are not very much inclined to be politicians hereabouts, but many of us would like to see some progress made in national affairs, and many who have been firm friends of the Administration and supporters of the Government, have become serious doubters of the consistency and judgment of the one, or of the proper conducting of the other, and for the first time look with doubt upon the future If God had lent us a Jackson for a President, possessed of firmness, intrepidity and judgment all combined, there would have, at least, been little chance for stock jobbers, contractors and politicians to glut themselves upon the spoliation of a nation and the slaughtered thousands of brave yeomanry, the rank and file who, (thank God, for that much patriotism we may believe in,) are honestly sacrificing life and homes to save a nation's honor The people are brave, self sacrificing and devoted to the public good, they are pouring out their life's blood and their treasure without stint Where then is the evil unless it be that generals can see no further than their petty jealousies in many instances, and politicians are sacrificing all to agitate the negro questions and lay scheming plans to make future presidents? God save our country, for it seems that our rulers cannot.

We in the Blue Mountains cannot fail to desire earnestly a solution of our national difficulties, even though we are far removed from them, and the troubled waves of war and politics have never come near our mountain homes The promise of a military station at old Fort Boise gives a great deal of satisfaction here, and will do much to advance the interests of this whole section The country to the eastward, in Washington Territory, would not be safe without it.

The people of the Willamette will find competition in supplying bread stuffs to the Boise country, their Mormon neighbors have promised to send a full supply A large amount of flour has already been contracted for, I am told, to be delivered in April, at $10 per cwt, though that can hardly be fulfilled in the time spoken of, but there is little doubt that a great amount of flour will go from Salt Lake to the mines when the roads are passable Late arrivals from there represent that provisions are abundant, and at reasonable prices, too, considering the circumstances

Parties here are only waiting for Spring to open, to make a thorough prospect of the country south and east of here towards Burnt and Malheur Rivers and they expect to find a more extensive mining country than ever

Up Country News.—The following items we take from the Mountaineer of the 6th inst

Judge Thorp writes that a white man—name unknown—has recently been murdered by the Indians in the Yakima valley The man had bought a horse from an Indian, paying him for it in gold, and the same Indian followed and murdered him The object of the murder was robbery The settlers in the Yakima valley are greatly alarmed on account of the threatening attitude of the Indians, and unless protection is afforded them the greater part of the people will leave the valley

Reports reach us from Payette river, that the Indians had stolen all the animals belonging to three large pack trains At last accounts the packers were staying by their goods waiting an opportunity to get them into the mines

An old Californian, writing from Boise to his brother at Yreka, advises him to drop everything and strike a bee line for the mines According to the writer we are going to have the California of '51 and '52 over again

There were one hundred and sixty deaths in San Francisco during the month of January

For the Oregonian

An Obstruction

The U S mails on the route from Portland to Lafayette via Hillsboro Forest Grove, and Wapatoo, and thence to Grand Ronde were detained one day The whole cause was on account of a poor and unsafe pole bridge and high water This particular bridge is adjacent to Col Hall's farm, seven miles from Portland If the aforesaid pole bridge had been built two feet higher, the mails could have gone through in time We do know such obstructions are for the lack of the performance of a duty incumbent upon the road supervisors and citizens along the route The roads and bridges, and in particular the small pole bridges, are in a very bad condition all along the road from Portland to Lafayette A bridge is also very much needed on the direct road from Hillsboro to Forest Grove, from the Tualatin bridge across the low bottom on both sides of the river The citizens at Hillsboro and Forest Grove are very well acquainted with the above location

The citizens on the mail routes expect the mails to arrive and depart on regular contract time, and the postoffice department, on the other hand, holds contractors responsible for failures of trips Now, on whom does the duty devolve, in the matter of failures of mails to make their regular trips? I hope the people may consider the matter to be of their own individual interest to improve the roads during the present season Enough for this time. Yours, respectfully,

Amasa Howe,
Mail contractor on the above route

The above would suggest that a sudden and well planned attack be at once made on the several "demoralized pontoons" along the route mentioned It strikes us that a measure of culpability is attached to those who reside on a constantly traveled thoroughfare, from which they, as well as the public, derive benefit, and neglect to keep the same in order At this time, when there is little or nothing to be done on the farm, a few days' labor put in, on the worst places, would add much to the convenience of travel, and call down blessings from the passers by

Diamonds vs Patriotism —A writer in the Boston Transcript says

If all the diamonds in this country were gathered together, shipped to the States of Europe, and disposed of there, the aggregate avails would furnish an enormous sum If that sum were cast upon the national altar, the national debt would be greatly diminished, if not extinguished altogether

Can we draw no precedent for such a magnificent movement of practical patriotism, from the history of empires, in the hour of their deepest need? Let us see In Allison's History of Europe, there are some stirring passages, descriptive of the conduct of Prussian women, when their almost exhausted country was about to renew the struggle against Napoleon, after the Moscow campaign We cite from vol 9 page 162 "The women universally sent their precious ornaments to the public treasury, and received in return similar bijoux, beautifully worked in bronze bearing the simple inscription, 'I gave gold for iron 1813' Not an ornament but those of iron, were to be seen, either in dress or the shops Thence have arisen the order of the Iron Cross, in Prussia, and the beautiful Berlin bronze ornaments so well known and so highly prized, in every country of Europe It must be confessed, that chivalry cannot boast of a nobler fountain of honor, nor fashion a more touching memorial of virtue"

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

THE MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

Legal Tender Notes this Day—52 cents.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Circuit Court has been occupied in the case of Chapman vs Lownsdale, alluded to in our last report which was not finished at a late hour last evening During the week, Judge Shattuck announced decision in the case of Masters, Hall & Harbaugh vs Ben Holladay, sustaining the demurrer of defendant and declaring the contract alleged void by the Statute of Frauds; and in the case of Shirpser vs The City of Portland, the Recorder was ordered to send up the papers in the case tried before him, as the plaintiff had a right to take an appeal.

STEAMER "HERMANN."—The prospect of an immense rush to Oregon is so good that this ship, when the Pacific left, was making arrangements to start from San Francisco for Astoria this day, bringing a large crowd of hardest miners She ought to arrive on Monday evening, and will probably be delayed until some river boat connects with her

PROBABLE SUICIDE OF A BOY.—A correspondent writes us "that a son of Mr H Norton about 14 years old, residing four miles East of Belpassi in Marion Co, went from his father's home to cut wood last Monday, and not returning at night, search was made, and he was found dead—having hung himself with a rawhide bow string No reason for such an act is suggested, and it is thought that possibly he did not expect a fatal result

A MISTAKE.—A Richmond correspondent of the Charleston Mercury, telling anecdotes about the battles last October beyond Richmond, says that during one of them a straggler, who had built a nice fire and was enjoying it all to himself, observed what he took to be a squad of cavalry. The man in front seemed to be lolling in his saddle The straggler ran out to meet him, and said "Look here old fellow; you are mighty happy Where the h—ll did you get your liquor from? Give me some, I'm as dry as a powder-horn" Imagine his feelings when he found it was Stonewall Jackson—the most ungraceful rider in the army, and who naturally sways from side to side, as if he were "three sheets in the wind"

REPRESENTATION IN ENGLAND.—Mr Jones, the young and eloquent Irishman, in his lecture in New York, told the audience that in England 300 families controlled the Government; a few thousand landholders owned the soil—five men owned one-fourth of Scotland, and five millions of adult men had no votes in the Government.

Having bought a fine looking overcoat cheap, it is really mortifying (but by no means astonishing) to find that it is in a galloping consumption Half the cloth in use is made of Shoddy, and in these days of progress, a trashy garment can be made to look quite as well, while in the store, as a good one. Before long, however, the victim of cheap clothing finds his coat becoming lighter and lighter, and the substance of the cloth accumulating in the corners and seams between the material and the lining, instead of being on his back. If you would avoid being fooled in this way, buy all your clothing of Heuston, Hastings & Co., Lick House, Montgomery street, San Francisco, for their whole stock is made of the best material.

Storage.—THE FIRE-PROOF STONE WAREHOUSE, opposite the Umatilla House is the only building not made of wood at the Dalles, where goods are taken on STORAGE. All other houses that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town liable to the risk of fire The subscriber assures his patrons that his charges are but $1 50 per ton per month storage and although storage in wooden buildings is $1 00 per ton yet the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses of this place

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches" or Lozenges let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice See advertisement dec16dawlm

White's Fever and Ague Drops—For the cure of AGUE, PANAMA FEVER, NEURALGIA and GENERAL DEBILITY

This medicine has been used in private practice for many years with great success Indeed in no instance has it failed to effect a speedy cure in Ague especially, one bottle having been found sufficient in most cases and in none are more than two bottles required.

A great number of testimonials could be given to verify these statements, but the proprietor prefers relying upon the merits of the medicine alone A cure is guaranteed in nine cases out of ten.

No Compromise with Disease

... strength and nature will relieve here ... heart kidneys ... active by ELECTRICAL ... the aged the palsied ... the dyspeptic and the invalid ... under its benign influence

To the Ladies of California.

Dr Van Zandt's success with complaints of women ... practice, is owing to his correct views of the origin of their maladies Ladies can consult him with ... as he is to speculator upon human ills—but is ... the only member of the legitimate profession in California who is really successful in treating those ills which are the peculiar province of the sex ... their delicately attuned nervous organism together with their great sympathetic life ... those silent complaints which they bear so patiently ... No second ... longer afflict our home circles for he can awaken ... restore the wanted tonicity of the body awaken the melancholic and desponding ... which cause so much anxiety cure those ... which have so long Baffled the Skill of Physicians.

Develope appetite life and animation dispel nervous headache sinking at the stomach wandering pains wasting away of strength extreme debility and lifelessness hectic cough sleeplessness unpleasant dreams and that general depression of life powers, which go to render her life a misery and death a boon Dr Van Zandt with his new method of exciting the Electro-Galvanic current together with his remedial measures which are adapted to the necessities of California will assure you of a complete and radical recovery of all bodily and mental infirmities and will restore you to usefulness, and spare you a blessing to your family and society

All the world over

wherever disease exists whether special to the soil and climate or common to all regions—epidemic or casual acute or chronic contagious or non-contagious—it is as necessary to restore the ELECTRO-GALVANIC equilibrium especially in California as it is to give food to the starving This statement is based upon a series of facts extending through many years and verified by hundreds of patients, so that in principle of science no rule of experience no result of any well known cause rests upon more sure and unassailable foundations than those which underlie the world wide reputation of Electricity for the cure of all nervous states of the body faulty digestion mental and physical debility or prostration coughs asthma wandering pains of a rheumatic, gouty or neuralgic character and all forms of disease the result of scrofula or cachectic habit of body

None Need Despair of Relief

If you have ulcers which will not heal—pains that cannot be removed—melancholy which you cannot shake off—loss of power which you cannot regain—depression of spirits which weigh you down—wakefulness that knows no sleeping—business that languishes for want of energy—a void which no society can fill—suspicion which no assurance can allay—go to Dr Van Zandt for his great success and the safety with which he administers his new method of electrical excitation together with his remedies which are adapted to the requirements of climate and constitution will assure you of a complete and radical remova of all bodily and mental infirmities within the scope of science and man to remove

The Eye and Ear Diseases.

It must not be forgotten by the eye and ear sufferers that Dr Van Zandt has made these afflictions an especial study and that he is the only Surgeon in our state who has a diploma for that branch of practice Very many of the eye and ear troubles are purely deranged nervous action and are cured by his electro-galvanic battery—as amaurosis, squinting cataract flitting specks before the vision twitching of the eyelids, nervous deafness, roaring and buzzing noises in the ears giddiness, etc All operations successfully ... on those delicate organs of sense

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally bathe externally over the parts affected and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison and heal the wound in a short time

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely and take a dose of it internally morning noon and night, it will not only cure the pain but will remove the cause of the disease

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day

If you have the Diarrhoea or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored If you have a painful swelling bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly

If you have a pain in the Breast Side Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally

If a Mother has a caked breast apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne

If you feel chilly or cold as though you were going to have a fever take a dose of Panacea

If you have a wound cut or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time

How Gamblers Rob Their Victims

The Cook gambling affair has led to some important disclosures in the affairs of the "sporting fraternity," but nothing we have yet seen or heard that equals in interest a discovery made in this city yesterday Conlisk, one of the men concerned in 'fleecing Paymaster Cook was a frequent visitor to this city, and occupied rooms in the third story of the Parson s block, on Superior street He had contracted debts here and yesterday an attachment was issued against the property in his rooms Sheriff Lewis and Deputy Sheriff Whitney went to serve the attachment, and in the course of their researches made some rich discoveries

The rooms occupied by Conlisk on the third floor consist of a sitting room, where the gambling was done, and a bedroom The sitting room was furnished in the usual manner, and had a faro table near the windows and a draw poker table in the centre of the room, with chairs placed to each The walls and ceiling of the room are papered with paper of star pattern, Directly over these rooms are two small rooms also occupied by Conlisk, but not furnished A portion of the flooring has been removed in the room immediately over the gambling room, and a small hole bored through the ceiling of the room below, above each of the tables As the holes come directly through the centre of a star pattern in the paper, they are scarcely distinguishable from below. Each hole is so placed as to enable a person applying his eye to it to look directly into the hand of the player seated in the chair below. An ingenious telegraphic signal machine was discovered communicating between those holes in the room above and the chair of the gambler in the room below A wire, having a handle near the hole, passed along between the flooring of the above and the ceiling of the room below, to the corner of the gambling room and bedroom It enters the bed room and passes down into the corner, being concealed by a strip of board nailed up and papered over It then passes under the floor of the gambling room to the table, where a small piece of the flooring has been cut away close by the table leg, where the left foot of the gambler would be placed while playing—there it terminates in a spring and hammer concealed by the carpet

The method of working this invention for robbing by machinery seems to have been as follows · The victim to be operated upon finds two chairs drawn up to the table. In one of these the gambling thief seats himself at once placing his foot over the telegraph-hammer The victim is obliged to take the other, which is placed in the proper position for playing The gambler's accomplice in the room above stretches himself on a mattrass, with his eye at the peep-hole and one hand grasping the telegraph handle. The hole is so placed that he can look directly down into the hand of his victim. As soon as he sees the cards he telegraphs their description according to an arranged code of signals, by pulling the handle, when the hammer strikes the desired number of raps on the sole of the gambler's boot or slipper, the sound being muffled by the carpet. Of course, it is easy to see that the man who sits down to play with such a gambler is robbed as surely, completely and systematically as if he had been bound hand and foot and delivered over to a highwayman, and of the two robbers, the highwayman would be the more decent man.

These rooms have been occupied at various times by Contisk, Maj Barker, and other gamblers, residents and non-residents of the city. Some highly respectable citizens that we could name, have visited these rooms, and have undoubtedly "fought the tiger" without a shadow of a chance against its teeth and claws. There are other rooms in the city used for gambling purposes, which are frequented by some of our best citizens, who would dread to see their names published, and whose names, if published, would startle and shock their friends and the public Are there no "telegraphs" in these rooms?—Cleveland Herald.

Beecher on Balls, Billiards, and the Opera.—In a recent sermon, Henry Ward Beecher said

If one came to me, as his pastor, and says, "What had I better do in regard to parties and balls and dances?' I would have him do what seemed to him his duty In so far as the general question is concerned, I affirm that it is his right, as a Christian man, to determine whether it is best for him to encourage these things. I might discuss this question of example with him, but to-night I am only speaking of liberty, and of the duty of every man to use it Christianly with regard to his fellow man. Let them do that, and then act, and act boldly.

The same is true in respect to games In the first place, no game is, in itself, I suppose, injurious or harmful Cards are not, billiards are not, ten pins are not No games that I know of are in and of themselves harmful. It is circumstances that make one another of them injurious And in regard to them all, I hold that there is a Christian liberty.

Well, take my own case If I were simply and merely a literary man, without any moral function; without any relation to the community as a moral teacher, I hold that it would be proper for me to do many things that it is improper for me to do now, simply because I am a centre of observation. I do not think there would be the least harm in the world in my going to Irving Hall to see a game of billiards played, to witness a billiard tournament. But would I do it? No Why? Because I would not see enough pleasure to pay for the racket and misunderstanding that it would occasion. Every piddling newspaper, every insignificant editor that could not write an article, and that wanted a sensation paragraph for his columns, all over the country would make a noise about it and I should receive any number of letters, saying 'Mr Beecher, did you go? How could you go?" And the trouble of explaining, the trouble of being pecked at, would a great deal more than balance any gratification that I might realize from what I saw Not because it would be wrong, mark you, but simply because it would be inconvenient It would be proper for me to go out on a rainy night without an umbrella, and get wet, but it would be inconvenient, for I should have to change my clothes

And so it is in regard to many things that are on exhibition. I do not know but I might derive much pleasure without injury to myself, from attending operas, but I do not go to them. I never have been to one The principal reason why I do not go to operas is that there are thousands and thousands of young men who have not been brought up to see any difference between a theatre and an operatic performance—and I do not say whether one or the other is right or wrong—and many, seeing me go might say, 'I have a right to go where he has" and thus be led to stumble

Proclamation by the Governor

Executive Office Portland, Oregon
January 6, 1863

By the President of the United States through Brigadier General George Wright commanding the Department of the Pacific and Brigadier General Benjamin Alvord commanding the District of Oregon, I have been requested to raise six additional companies required to complete the 1st Regiment of Cavalry, Oregon Volunteers They will be needed the coming Spring on the frontiers of this State and Washington Territory and for an expedition against the Snake Indians, who have so long been mercilessly engaged in robbing emigrants and murdering our fellow citizens I cannot doubt that the citizens of Oregon, who have always promptly responded to any demand for their military services will in like manner respond to this call, thereby showing their loyalty to the Government and aiding in chastising marauding bands of Indians which infest our frontiers

The enlisted men, when mounted, will be supplied with horses by the United States it being understood that they will be mounted or not, as shall be deemed advisable by the Government

Propositions to raise a whole company, which will furnish their own horses and horse equipments, may be entertained The men are in such cases entitled to forty cents a day for the use and risk of their horses and horse equipments

Each company will consist of one hundred enlisted men, and when mustered into the service of the United States to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged

Recruiting offices will be immediately opened at Portland, Dalles City, and perhaps at other places By the Governor,

ADDISON C GIBBS

Cyrus A Reed Adjutant General
